Thank you, Jennifer.

I let Mary Penny know that I'll stop by if I can but it's doubtful that I'll make it due to already scheduled meetings.

All,

David Kelly, who has been instrumental in helping us coordinate this meeting, requested that I share with you the two attached documents as useful pre-reading in advance of Thursday morning's discussion.

Per David: the issue brief and the formal comments EDF submitted in FERC proceedings help lay out the underpinnings and consequences of the misalignment between the wholesale natural gas market and electricity market. The FERC comments also describe at least one policy innovation EDF has proposed to bring more efficiency to the system.

Best,
Jennifer
